BCA Board Member Code of Ethics

The Board of Directors, having accepted the challenge of service on the Region 8 Board, accepts and subscribes to the following Code of Ethics:

1. To view service on the Board as an opportunity to serve the community, state, and nation viewing public education as the means to promote the welfare of the people and to preserve the democratic way of life.
2. To think of students first and base all decisions on how those decisions will affect the student, their education and training.
3. To remember that Board members serve as role models for the students and to conduct themselves accordingly.
4. To make no disparaging remarks, in or out of the Board meetings, about other members of the Board or their opinions.
5. To remember at all times that as an individual, the Board member has no legal authority outside the meetings of the Board, and to conduct any relationship with the school staff, the local citizenry, and all media on the basis of this fact.
6. To recognize that the responsibility of the Board member is not to operate the school but to see that the school is well operated.
7. To seek to provide career and technical education for all of the students in the region commensurate with their needs and abilities.
8. To listen to all citizens but to refer all complaints to the proper authorities and to discuss such complaints only at a scheduled meeting.
9. To accept, but not necessarily to agree with a decision, once it has been made by the Board.
10. Not to criticize employees publicly, but to bring such concerns to the Director for investigation and action if necessary.
11. All formal requests for information should be to the Director but it is understood that certain informal lines of communication exist between staff and Board members; this policy is not meant to interfere with this communication

12. To make decisions only after all facts bearing on a question have been presented and discussed.
13. To refuse to make promises as to how to vote on a matter which should properly come before the Board as a whole.
14. Not to discuss the confidential business of the Board in the home, on the street, or on the office, the place for such discussion being the Board meeting.
15. To confine Board action to policy making, planning and financial oversight, leaving the administration of the school to the Director.
16. To welcome and encourage cooperation and participation by teachers, administrators and other personnel in developing policies which affect their welfare and that of the students they serve.
17. To endeavor at all times to see that Region 8 has adequate financial support within the capabilities of the sending schools and the state, in order that every student may receive the best possible education.
18. To be aware that the Board member's effectiveness is diminished by non-attendance at meetings.
19. To conduct school business in accordance with state and federal laws/regulations and the Board's policies.
20. To not use the position of a Board member for personal benefit or to benefit any individual or agency apart from the total interest of the school.
